Create an Nx workspace including an Angular application which will have the following:

- Pages:
    - Homepage: The page must contain a shared component
    - Application B: The page must load another Angular application within the Nx workspace
    - Library: The page must load a shared library
- A navigation menu which will navigate to the above pages.